LOCAL NEWS.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other stock. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Rev. W. L. Stamper has been appointed to preach the opening sermon at the district conference which convenes at London, Ky., on June 25.

D. S. Godsey, mine host of the Day mine, bought a cow from W. P. Trimble at $25; also 1 from T. J. Stephenson at same price, Monday last.

Breen's Liniment is pronounced by all who have used it to be the greatest remedy for rheumatism, sprains, cuts, bruises, etc. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt held regular service at Campion last Saturday night, Sunday and Monday night, and had good and attentive audiences at each meeting.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for corns, neuralgia, pains in the back and side, etc., ever produced. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Master Rollin Kash, who spent Sunday last in Campion, says everybody there has the measles. If those incarcerated in the jail have them, now is a good time to break out.

One of Judge Swango's hens hatched a chicken a few days since which is a wonderful freak of nature. The chicken had 4 distinct legs and feet, is apparently healthy and bids fair to "live long and prosper."

Rev. E. P. Mickel preached in the new Union church at Dick's Glory, in Morgan county, on Sunday last. He informs us that the church is not yet complete, but is so far advanced that service can be held in it.

The school-trustees elected last Saturday will, we understand, secure a first-class common school teacher for the session next fall, and teachers knowing themselves to be qualified to teach all the English branches will do well to communicate with them.

Sheriff Patrick, of Magoffin, and his deputies, John W. Power and H. N. Adams, passed through town Sunday last en route to Mt. Sterling to bring back John Stapleton, now incarcerated in the jail there for the murder of Whitt in Magoffin last January.

Crock Coldiron hauled 3 logs to the mill near here a few days since which are the largest ever brought there. They each contained 1,300 feet, and were hauled from Laurel about 2 1/2 miles distant. The tree from which they were cut would have made 5,000 feet.

Rev. J. T. Pieratt will preach at J. A. C. Murphy's school-house Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Also at the Tom Ward school-house on Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in this month at 3 p. m. and at night, and Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m.

We have in this office a kitten which we have adopted, and named "Hosmer," after Abner P. Hosmer, who was a visitor here some 2 years since, and an expert in cat training. We call the kitten "Os," for short, and hope some day to be able to train it as thoroughly as he did a cat he once owned.

See the advertisement of McCormick & Cox in this issue of our paper, and if you want anything in their line, when you go to Mt. Sterling call on them. Their mill is a new one, they have all the improved machinery for furnishing doors, sash, blinds, etc., and we bespeak for them a liberal share of the mountain patronage.

Have you seen it? We mean the corn-sheller which Caskey & Pieratt have on sale. It is a hand-sheller, and one man can, with ease, shell from 6 to 7 bushels of corn per hour with it, without tiring his hands or becoming tired in his arm. They cost the trivial sum of $1, and every farmer or farmer's son who has corn to shell, should call and secure one.

At the Christian church, in Hazel Green, on Thursday, May 28, Henry B. Day was wedded to Miss Lourena Profit; attendants: Ira G. Profit and Miss Nannie Little. Judge G. B. Swango officiated, and we must compliment him on the ease and dignity with which he delivered the ceremony, for in the language of G. H. Mc. "It was as good as a preacher could do it."

Come up to-day and subscribe, if you have not already done so. Take The Herald, the only paper in Eastern Kentucky which is working for your interests. If you have taken it, see that your neighbor also takes it. The price is only $1.00 a year, and after this issue the paper will be 25 instead of 24 columns—an increase in the amount of reading of about 1 1/2 inches, or more than 6 columns more than it now contains.

The members of the Methodist church at Goodwin's Chapel are soliciting funds to finish their church building, and that everyone may have a chance to donate something to the noble charity, we give this notice: "Cast your bread upon the waters and it will return to you after many days." Give of your means, whether you are a man of means or not, if you mean well; but if you are a mean man your gift will do no good, and it will not be solicited. When you are appealed to, therefore, you may feel that by angel's direction you have been called upon as one known for his charity.

In Memoriam.

[Licking Valley Scorchers.]

Departed this life, May 29th, 1885, of pneumonia, Col. William Ward, in the 62d year of his age.

The funeral services were conducted on the 30th ult., at the Christian church by Elder J. M. Downing, of this place, and Eld. Combs, of Ezel, in the presence of a large concourse of people, after which his body was taken in charge and buried in the Masonic fraternity with a beautiful and imposing ceremony of the Mosaic Brotherhood, of which he was an honored member.

In his death the town has lost one of its oldest landmarks, the church one of its devoted and consistent members. Many one of its strongest devotees and his family a faithful, affectionate and devoted husband and father. In all the relations which he sustained to others, in social or business life, he was a true man, inflexible in his integrity and faithful to his trusts. His unflinching faith in the holy religion which he professed and illustrated, was his guiding star in life and comfort in the hour of his dissolution. Such a death as his is a glorious one to die! He bore his sufferings with Christian fortitude, and calmly awaited the end. With an eye of faith he looked through the shadows of the valley which separated him from the sainted loved ones on the other side, and hailed with delight the hour when he could strike hands with them beside the River of Life. He leaves a strict, sober and his death dooms to orphanage a lovely daughter who was the idol of his heart, and he in turn was idolized by her. Oh! may life who tempts the wind to the shorn lamb, comfort them in their sad bereavement, and enable them, "When this weary watch is over," to meet him in the blissful abodes of the blest, in the Eternal City of our God.

James Campbell, who was committed to our county jail by an examining court in default of bail, charged with petit larceny, was taken before Judge Swango Tuesday the 2nd inst., quarterly court being in session, and upon being informed of the charge against him and notified by the judge to prepare for trial, he made no further defense, but at once confessed his guilt. He waived the right of a trial by a jury, and asked the court to fix his punishment, and pleaded earnestly for mercy. The court being a timid sort of a man thought 20 days at hard labor sufficient to pay for a bushel of corn, and he is now boarding with Jailer Creech, and aiding the good people of Campton on their public works. Jim might have done better digging ginseng on the head of Froze.

J. R. Corder, of Mattoon, Ill., who is visiting J. Taylor Day, at this place, has been visiting in Powell county for a week or more, and has, since arriving in this country, secured several rich specimens of silver. He exhibited a piece of "silver bloom" to us a few days since, which he says is as fine as any ever seen in Colorado. He found it between here and Powell county, but just where deponent saith not. He leads us to believe from his conversation, however, that if "Swift's mine" is a myth, the fact that silver is abundant here is a certainty. In company with Floyd Day, of this place, Mr. Corder will to-morrow visit Swift's Camp creek and investigate for himself, whether or not the silver indicated at other points can be found there.

Rev. W. L. Stamper preached here last Saturday night and Sunday morning, to good audiences. His subject on Saturday night was "Conversion," and on Sunday he gave us "Elements of Success in this World, Prosperity," and handled the subject in a manner calculated to make one's duty so plain that none could fail of seeing it. He told them some very plain truths, by-the-way, which caused many of them to open their eyes and will cause them hereafter to open their pocket-books. Mr. Stamper is a power behind the Throne of Grace, as a preacher, and we only reiterate what we have heretofore said that it is only a matter of time until he will be called to service in some powerful church.

By reference to our advertising columns, our readers will find the advertisement of Day & Bros., of Froze creek, Breathitt county. They come before you with a handsome stock of goods at extremely low prices, and those of our readers who live in trading distance of their store, no matter if it is a little further than to other stores, will save money by buying of them. People of Jackson, especially, might find it to their interest to ride out to Day & Bros., when they want goods cheap, for certain it is that the man or men who advertise can sell cheaper than the man or men who do not. Seven is the perfect number, and they are 7 miles from Jackson. Give them a trial.

Elsewhere will be found the card of F. M. Long, who has just started a wool-carding machine at Upper Grassy, or "Dick's" in Morgan county, and we most earnestly solicit for him a liberal share of the carding patronage. His is the only wool-carding machine in Morgan county, so far as we are informed, and he will doubtless get all the business he can attend to. Dick knows that it pays to advertise, and he is every day reaping the benefits of it. L. P. Hall, a man of 30 years' experience, has charge of Dick's carding machine, and will certainly render perfect satisfaction.

In the election of school trustees last Saturday, the following gentlemen were unanimously chosen, viz: Wm. Lusk, Dr. J. M. Kash and Calvin Swango. A better trio than this could not have been selected in the district. Every one of them has the interest of public education at heart, and feel that in this lies our future prosperity. They would each have the masses educated thoroughly in the English branches if nothing more, and we only voice public opinion when we say that they are the right men in the right place.

Personal Paragraphs.

Kelly B. Day has returned from a visit to Froze.

Miss Alice Combs, of Campton, is visiting the family of J. M. Kash, Esq., of this place.

Bert Thompson, of the firm of Chiles, Thompson & Co., Mt. Sterling, was in town Monday.

J. G. Trimble and wife, of Mt. Sterling, are on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. J. Taylor Day, of this place.

D. B. Landrum and Fegate McIntosh, of Lost Creek, were guests of the Pieratt house last Thursday.

Miss Lula Kash, daughter of Jos. M. Kash, Esq., left Monday last for a visit to relatives and friends at Frenchburg.

Thos. Watts, N. Combs and J. C. Neace registered at the Pieratt house last Monday. Mr. Watts has cattle on the market to-day.

Jos. M. Kash, Esq., of this place, left Monday last for Mt. Sterling on business, and will perhaps be absent during the week.

Oscar Young, a nephew of Mrs. G. B. Swango, who has been sojourning in Hazel Green for some months past, left on Monday last for Kansas City, Mo.

John C. M. Day, of Froze, was here last Saturday. He was en route home from Frankfort, whither he had been on business connected with his logging interest.

J. R. Corder and wife, of Mattoon, Ill., are visiting the family of J. Taylor Day, of this place, who is a cousin of Mrs. Corder. Mr. Corder, by-the-way, is something of a mineralogist, and from his remarks on observations which he has made here, we are led to believe that this country abounds in other minerals than iron ore—there is silver, and plenty of it.

Prof. Carpenter entertained the people at this place the other night with his little sleight-of-hand side-show.

Corn is looking very well where it has been worked. Squirrels and crows have not bothered the farmers to amount to anything—something very remarkable!

Bro. Wm. Davis, Baptist, preached at this place last Sabbath, with the result of 2 additions to the church—Andrew N. Huddix and William Linden, Jr. Bro. Davis will preach here again, on the 5th Sunday in August, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and on the Saturday evening at 3 P. M. Come one, come all, says UNCLE REMUS.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Judge G. B. Swango and his amiable wife, of Hazel Green, passed through town last Sunday.

May & Swango have bought W. C. Daniel's interest in the Maytown mills. Hereafter the mills will be run by the above named gentlemen.

Died—Infant child of J. C. Ward and wife, last week. The father and mother have the sympathy of the people in this one of the sorest troubles of earth.

Marshall W. T. Day and G. T. Centers, sheriff of Wolfe county, have gone to Mt. Sterling to take "Back" Caywood to Frankfort, where he is to serve 11 years in the penitentiary.

W. H. McKay, of Salt Lick, Bath county, has rented Rev. J. P. Lockhart's property, at this place and will move to it in a short time. He is a first-class carpenter and will work for a time on the Methodist church.

Rev. J. P. Lockhart has sold his blacksmith-shop and tools, and his store at Flat Rock; the former to James Neff, of this place, and the latter to C. B. Dingus and R. R. Hamilton, of Flat Rock. Rev. Lockhart will travel this summer.

B. N. Spradling and Miss Emma E. Hutton, formerly of Harrison county, passed through town last Friday on their way to Ezel. Mr. Spradling is a merchant at Spradling Ky., and a thorough-going young man, but we would modestly remind "Byrd" that if he does not jump the "connubial twig" pretty soon, he will be placed on the "old bachelor" list.

In reply to "On The Wing" your correspondent from Grassy creek, we would say that the former writer from Maytown was not intended as any reflection upon the high standing of J. M. Murphy, as he is regarded by us as being one of the elite of this country, and worthy of large space in the social circles of the "grandees" and "upper ten" in this country of any other; but the communication was handed to us by one who will not deny the fact, and copied by us and forwarded to THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD. "Duster" has "soaked his shoes and dusted his clothes," and would recommend a similar dose for "On The Wing," with the addition that, after having soaked his shoes, he give his "hand splitters" a thorough scrubbing, and thereby save the officers of a "dirty job." If this does not have the desired effect, let him "soak" his conscience in the pellucid floods of honesty, and we guarantee he will never come to the rescue of another man without first knowing the facts in the case. Mr. Editor, hold him off. DUSTER.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

FRENCHBURG, JUNE 5.

J. J. Byrne, county clerk, has gone to Frankfort to take the tax-books and take in the stamps for copying.

Mrs. Demaree and daughter, Miss Laura, are attending the commencement of Millersburg college, where Thos. Demaree graduated.

Judge J. M. Nesbitt, of Owingsville; B. F. Day, of Mt. Sterling, and I. W. Mapel, of Stanton, were in town Monday and Tuesday, attending county and quarterly court.

The prospects at present are that we will have a light crop of peaches and blackberries, a good crop of apples, very little wheat, a heavy mast, and corn is looking very fine.

Rev. J. K. Hittner preached at the court-house on Wednesday night. He was on his way to Jackson to hold a meeting. H. D. Combs, of this place, accompanied him to Jackson.

A rule was taken at this term of the county court against all the surveyors on the state road from Cornwell to the Wolfe county line, to put their sections of said road in good repair by the next term of the county court.

Your correspondent has been using water from the Swango spring for some time for his afflictions—nervous prostration from spinal injury. He is satisfied it is very beneficial to him and would recommend its use to persons suffering from debility, constipation, dyspepsia, scurvy, etc. in fact he does not believe it is excelled for medical properties by any water in the world.

A very destructive hail-storm passed through the center of this county on May 30, doing great injury to gardens, fruits and grain crops. It is very singular that every year, about this time in the year, just such storms pass over the very same ground, and that it is precisely in the track of a terrific hurricane that passed through this section of the country many years ago, blowing down all the timber in its course. [Licking Valley Scorchers.]

The greatest annoyance that a printer has to deal with, is persons hanging about the office, gabbling upon all sorts of subjects. A printer must think while he works, and must think about the matter in hand, and everything that diverts his attention from his work, interferes with him and prevents good results. When you call at the office, make your visit as short as is consistent with your business, ask as few questions of the compositors as possible, and retire when the object of your visit is accomplished. A leader in a printing office is as much out of place as the devil would be in Paradise—in fact, there is no place that ought to tolerate his presence.

Buy your bacon, mutton and beef of Caskey & Pieratt. Spot cash to one and all.

Many of our readers will doubtless attend court at Mt. Sterling next Monday, and some of those who go will in all probability wish to buy goods. To all such we would say that if you wish to get the best bargains call on Tom F. Rogers, for clothing, gents' furnishing goods, boots, shoes, &c.; Adam Baum or Trimble Bros., for groceries, canned goods, &c.; John W. Jones, for jewelry, silverware, clocks, &c.; Hanly & Judy, for hardware, harvesters, wagons, &c.; Albert Hoffman, if you want insurance on your property; J. T. Breen & Son if you want drugs or medicines; Robt. T. Bean, if you want the prettiest, cheapest and best fence in the world; John Keef, if you want your horse taken care of in good style, or want to buy or sell one; Conroy & Shore, if you want a buck-board or buggy, or a sign painted; Dr. B. F. Cox, if you want a good, square, home-made meal; Fisher, the best barber in Mt. Sterling, if you wish a first-class hair cut or shave. These embrace about all the things you are likely to want, and the above houses are the only ones to deal with if you would save money. Be certain that you do not mistake the names above, in seeking what you want and get in the wrong shop. They are all first-class men and deserving of your patronage. If there are any other houses in Mt. Sterling dealing in the above articles, we know them not, and advise you to look before you leap—look and see if the business is advertised in this paper. THE HERALD is the guide board to direct strangers, and if you pass it by when you go to buy you will regret it in the severest of ways. And as you go to Mt. Sterling do not fail to see the saw mill advertised by Alfred Combs at Cornwell. It is doubtless the thing you want, and you can get it cheap.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the town of Hazel Green, Ky., present J. H. Evans, police judge, Wm. Lusk and Dr. J. M. Kash, trustees, on the 5th inst., it was ordered that J. H. Pieratt be, and he is hereby, granted the privilege of selling, leasing or renting any property, goods, wares, etc., of every description at public auction in said town for the period of 12 months.

G. H. McCLAIN, Clerk B. T.

We desire to thank all those members of the Presbyterian church who so kindly aided in the agreeable (and profitable) surprise party—given on our resuming house keeping.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. NICKEL.

White-washing is the popular thing here just now. J. Taylor Day has decorated his yard fence and the trunks of his shade tree with a coat of it, and F. McQuire has used the purifying article on all his fences and out-buildings. J. G. Trimble is here, and is just now superintending the same process on the fence of the old Trimble homestead. It is to be hoped that all the citizens may be induced with a desire to do likewise. White fences, out-houses, &c., are beautiful to behold, while lime is a wonderful disinfectant.

Geo. B. Harper, the urbane superintendent of the Kentucky & South Atlantic railroad, writes us that he will be in about 10 days with a party of 10 or 12 persons to drink the water of the Swango spring, and is anxious to have easy-riding conveyances for the crowd. If, therefore, there is anyone around here who can furnish transportation for them, we should like to be notified that we may be able to give Mr. Harper and party the news.

At the Methodist church conference held in this town last evening, Rev. Isaac Murphy was elected delegate to the district conference at London, Ky., on the 25th inst. Rev. Barney Blankenship, a local preacher, was authorized to organize a Sunday-school at The Pines, between here and Daytown, and he will be there on next Sunday evening and proceed with the organization immediately after Rev. Mr. Mickel's service at the place.

Caskey & Pieratt, of this place, are now furnishing the people with excellent mutton at 6 and 7 cents per pound, and should receive the patronage of all families in or about the place.
